

Underline the correct form:

1. I can't play the piano very good / well.
2. I was good / well prepared for the test yesterday.
3. Lisa is looking tired / tiredly.
4. She hit the baseball very hard / hardly with the bat.
5. We are serious / seriously behind with this project.

Rewrite the sentences using an adverb instead of an adjective:

1. I'm a fast runner. I run _____.
2. We are hard workers. We work _____.
3. We have frequent talks. We talk _____.
4. The film's ending was surprising. The film ended _____.
5. Your English is really good. You speak English really _____.

Choose adjective or adverb in each sentence:

1. I'm surprising / surprisingly energetic, given I was up late last night.
2. I'll sleep good / well tonight.
3. Be gentle / gently with the baby.
4. I'm real / really worried about the decision.
5. The dinner tasted really good / well.